The Spirit of Herod Is Alive and Well

By Pastor Alfred B. Davis

King Herod and the people of Jerusalem were troubled. A large entourage from the east had arrived unexpectedly and camped outside of the city. According to Matthew 2:2, the Magi leading the entourage sent King Herod a disconcerting request, "Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

Herod and the people were concerned because the entourage from the east was considerably more than just a small caravan of three religious pilgrims and their attendants. It was most likely an official delegation from the Parthian Empire. Parthia was the chief rival power to Rome in the east at the time of the birth of Christ. The entourage would have been composed of several important members of the Parthian nobility, the Magi, along with their personal attendants and servants. Also accompanying them, due to the importance of the Magi and the treasure of gold, frankincense, and myrrh that they carried with them, would have been a very large contingent of armed Parthian cavalymen as escorts.

No doubt, Herod may have felt caught between a potential power play between Rome and Parthia, fearing that Parthia was about to make a move into the Roman occupied province of Judea. Consequently, in Matthew 2:4-6, we read that Herod contacted the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem in order to ascertain what the Parthians meant by "he that is born King of the Jews":

⁴And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. ⁵And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, ⁶And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

No doubt, King Herod was relieved after talking with the chief priests and scribes to find that the Parthians had not made something up to use as a pretext against him. Still, the threat of a potential Jewish king would have been another con-

What Year was Jesus Born?

By Dr. John A. Broadus, 1887

The time of our Saviour's birth was certainly in the fifth year before the ordinary annus Domini, which was fixed in the fifth or sixth century by error. Herod died in the spring of 750, as is shown by Josephus's reference to an eclipse of the moon that occurred near the time of his death, and astronomy shows which year that was. So the birth of Christ must have been in the year 749 B.C. 5. The annus Domini cannot be changed as a chronological error now. We can only say it was a mistake, and that the birth of Christ was five years earlier - possibly a little more, but certainly that much.

Luke says that Jesus was about thirty years old when He began His ministry. According to that He began Anno Domini 26. Now, His ministry lasted three years and a fraction, so far as we know, provided the feast of John v. 1 was a Passover, which it probably was. Other wise we should only know of its lasting two years and a fraction - if that feast be not taken as a Passover. If you say the ministry was three years and a frac-

Henry Ireland Buckner — Baptist Indian Missionary

by Samuel H. Ford, 1859

Henry Ireland Buckner, oldest son of Daniel and Mary H. Buckner, was born about fifty miles from Knoxville, East Tennessee, 18th of December, 1818, and received his early education from his father, so that by the time he was ten years old, he had read all the common school books, and all the scriptures, both of the Old and the New Testament. He was then sent to an academy in the town of Madisonville, Monroe county, Tenn., where he made rapid advancement in the several branches of a good English education. He professed religion in the church of which his father was pastor, in Madisonville, in August, 1832, and in the same month, with twenty-five others, was baptized by his father. Five of that number made respectable ministers of the gospel. At the age of seventeen, Henry entered a Presbyterian Seminary, in Meronville, Blount county, Tenn. At that time there was not a Baptist high school in the State.

At the age of twenty, he taught a school in Cleveland, Tenn. He then went to Alabama, where he commenced preaching. Was ordained in 1840; read the Greek Testament under Dr. Manly in the State University in Tuscaloosa, Ala.; preached with good success. In 1842, he came to visit his parents in Pulaski county, Ky., and in the same State married Susy Ann Dogan, daughter of Elder Samuel and Nancy Dogan. A few years after his marriage, he was employed by the General Association to labor as a domestic missionary in the Big Sandy country, of this State. He acted in this capacity for three years, when he settled himself on a little farm near his parents, where he lived comfortably and happy, until his mind became impressed with a sense of duty to go as missionary among the Indians; and in January, 1849, he was set apart to the work of a missionary, by T. J. Fisher, John James, Samuel Dogan, and Daniel Buckner. Soon after this, he and his family went on board a steamer, in the Cumberland river. As the boat moved gradually off, he sung at the top of his voice the hymn, "Yes, my native land, I love thee."

Since that time he has been laboring among the Creek Indians, save one year, when he was called home by the Board at Louisville, to act as agent for them. During that year, I believe, he collected nearly Ten Thousand Dollars; the amount, however, is published. I think he has baptized among the Indians some five hundred, constituted a great many churches, and ordained a number of ministers (I know not the precise number). While on his agency, he was offered by a church a salary of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to become their pastor. He said to me, in speaking of it, there was not money enough to hire him from the Indians. I will subjoin a piece of history in relation to his early attachment to the Indians.

Some years before their removal from Tennessee and Alabama, I lived twenty miles from them, and at the request of Jesse Bushahead, a native Cherokee preacher, I preached among them every fall until their removal; and as a number of them became acquainted with me, when they came into the settlement trading, they would come to my house, and many or few, I would feed them as long as they cern. After all, a potential alliance between a Jewish king and the Parthians would likely disrupt the balance of power between Rome and Parthia in the region and cost Herod both his throne and his life. Consequently, we read in Matthew 2:7-8:

⁷Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. ⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

However, as we read further down, in verses Matthew 2:13&16, Herod had no intention of worshiping the King of the Jews. Rather, he meant to destroy the rival king:

¹³And when they [the wise men] were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. ...¹⁶Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

Now, we could speculate endlessly as to Herod's motivations and the political situation of the day, but those speculations would fall short of the root cause, which is spiritual. It is spiritual because King Herod was influenced by Satan's hatred of the Jewish people.

Satan hates the Jewish people for several reasons. One is that God has a special love for the Jewish people. In Deuteronomy 32:9-10, God lovingly refers to Israel as the "apple of his eye":

⁹For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. ¹⁰He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

Words Worth Considering...

"Education is useless without the Bible."
—Noah Webster

"The United States stands proudly for Israel and the Jewish people forever."
—U.S. House Speaker Mike Johnson

"The fight over abortion in America is as much a religious contest as a political one. Until the pro-life movement recognizes this, it will keep getting shocked by referendum results like those in Ohio last week, which planted a right to abortion in the state's constitution."
—Daniel McCarthy

"The war going on in Israel today is not just war between Israel and Hamas. It is a war between Judeo-Christian civilization and radical Islamic barbarism. Israel is on the frontline of that war, and all of Western Civilization, especially the United States, stands in the crosshairs."
—Gary Bauer

"Having first rejected the Christian faith ... our secular elites are now rejecting all those other good things that sprang from it, and positing a very different sort of society. Instead of a society that embraces rationality and freedom and human rights, they offer something from the pagan past: a society that embraces power and violence and domination."
—John Daniel Davidson

"I'm disappointed knowing how so many on the left would have complied and even aided the Germans in WW2."
—Kevin Sorbo

"In one of the more astonishing statistics from Tuesday night, a whopping 24% of self-described 'white evangelical or born-again Christians' supported Ohio's Issue 1, which not only puts the Buckeyes on par with California's abortion extremism but gives the green light to minor transgender surgery — without parental consent. We're expecting voters to act with moral clarity when the church won't even speak to it."
—Suzanne Bowdey

"The outbreak of massive, irrational Anti-Semitism worldwide is a supernatural event orchestrated by Satan. He hates the Jewish people with a passion because they are God's Chosen People through whom God gave the Scriptures and the Messiah, Jesus. Satan also hates God's promise to bring a great remnant of the Jews to salvation through faith in Jesus."
—David Reagan

"The problem is our world today is blind to the demonic component of antisemitism. They look at this and think, why does the world hate the Jews so much? They don't understand that Satan takes irrational things, such as the hatred of the Jewish people and the land of Israel, and makes them appear rational."
—Mark Hitchcock

"In these evil times, God's people need to be immersed in Scripture and have a thoroughgoing biblical mindset."
—David Cloud

MINISTRY FOCUS

Saying Goodbye

The Richfield Bible Baptist Church said goodbye to our dear friend, Mrs. Betty J. Riegger in November. Born December 17, 1924, she went to be with her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ on November 7, 2023, with her daughter, Cheryl, by her side reading Psalm 91 to her. We will miss her smile but look forward to seeing her again one day soon in glory.

"With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation."

—Psalm 91:16

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

Please join the Richfield Bible Baptist Church on December 24 for our annual Christmas Eve Candlelight Service. Because Christmas Eve is on a Sunday this year, we will be having our Candlelight Service in lieu of our regular Sunday evening service. Consequently, we will be starting at 6:00pm rather than the usual 7:00pm.

Christmas is a busy time of the year and it is easy to forget that we are to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Join with us to remember the reason for the season as we sing some Christmas songs and listen to Pastor Davis read The Birth of Christ According to the Scriptures. After the singing and reading, we will take turns lighting candles and sharing some of the blessings of the past year.

Afterwards, enjoy some fellowship and Christmas cookies as we take time to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ together! ☪ would stay. He was then a member of the church, and they became fond of him, and he equally so of them. He says, ever since then he has had a fondness for them.

We know Henry Buckner well. We know him as a kind, companionable man, artless, loving, sociable; one to whom the society of brethren, and relatives, and the associations of civilized life, are dear, and would be enjoyed in the highest degree.

The above memoranda is from the aged and beloved father of Henry Buckner. We cannot close without recording our heartfelt tribute of respect and affection for this earnest missionary of the cross.

From the midst of friends and relatives; from the comforts of a peaceful home; from the opening paths of eminence and influence among his brethren he voluntarily parted, to endure the privations, the solitude, the actual sufferings of the wilderness and of savage life. "Yes," he said to the writer once, "it is hard. The lack of society, the destitution of everything like home comforts, the chilling isolation, and especially the circumstances of my family. But the conversion of the Indian to Christ, that thought nerves me to endure all things."

And God has blessed his toils. For all the sufferings of cold, and hunger, and solitude, God has rewarded him in giving him hundreds upon hundreds of souls for his hire.

Bro. Buckner is a man of strong intellect, of ardent feelings and attachments. As a

Adam Clarke, in his Commentary on the Bible, says of this phrase:

He kept him as the apple of his eye - Nothing can exceed the force and delicacy of this expression. As deeply concerned and as carefully attentive as man can be for the safety of his eyesight, so was God for the protection and welfare of this people. How amazing this condescension!

We see God's love and care for Israel reflected through the use of this phrase again in Zechariah 2:8:

For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

Of course, Satan hates and wants to destroy all of humanity, not just the Jews.

However, because the Jews have a special place in God's heart and His prophetic plans, the devil goes after them with a particular venom and malice. Hence Herod's motivation to kill the Jewish children "that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof," as was Pharaoh's similar motivation to kill the male Jewish babies in Exodus 1:8-22 in an earlier era. Witness also the unbelievably demonic attacks on October 7, 2023, when Hamas terrorists burned, beheaded, and even baked alive in ovens Jewish babies in front of their parents.

Another reason Satan hates the Jewish people is the promise of a coming Saviour. The first reference to a coming Saviour is found in Genesis 3:14-15:

¹⁴And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: ¹⁵And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

This passage is called the "proto-gospel" because it contains the promise that the seed of the woman would one day inflict a fatal wound, bruising the head, of the serpent while the serpent would inflict a non-fatal wound, bruising the heel, of the seed of the woman. In many ways, this was fulfilled at the cross where the Devil, the serpent, wounded Jesus, the seed of the woman, at the cross whereas Jesus, through His death, burial, and resurrection, defeated Satan.

Satan attempted to thwart God's promise in Genesis 6, where we read in verse 4:

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

Apparently, the Devil was attempting to adulterate the human gene pool, thus preventing the coming birth of "the seed of the woman." However, not all of humanity was corrupted genetically. Noah, for instance, was said, in Genesis 6:9, to be "perfect in his generations." So, although God destroyed the old world in the flood,

He preserved Noah and his family in the Ark and the promise of the coming "seed of the woman" was preserved.

Soon after the flood, God made a promise to Abram (Abraham) in Genesis 12:1-3, indicating that the promised "seed of the woman" was to come through his line:

¹Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: ²And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: ³And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

This same promise was later confirmed with Abraham's son, Isaac (Genesis 26:1-5), and his grandson, Jacob (Genesis 28:13

-15). The promise continued from Jacob to his fourth son, Judah (Genesis 49:10), and then on to Judah's descendent, Jesse (Isaiah 11:1,10), and then Jesse's youngest son, David (2 Samuel 7:16).

Along the way, the Devil tried numerous times to destroy the line through which the Saviour was promised. His efforts increased substantially with the calling of Jacob and the establishment of the Jewish people. There was the threat of Esau to kill his brother Jacob (Genesis 27:14), the previously mentioned effort of Pharaoh to destroy the Jewish people by ordering all the male babies to be killed (Exodus 1:8-22), and the numerous attempts of other nations to destroy the Jews after they returned to Canaan and established themselves as a nation there. There were also attempts to destroy the Davidic line, such as when the usurper, Queen Athaliah, endeavored to kill all the surviving heirs to the throne of the royal house of Judah, only to be thwarted by the divine preservation of baby Joash, the sole surviving son of King Ahaziah (2 Chronicles 22).

These many attempts to prevent the birth of Christ are pictured in a colorful drama in Revelation 12:1-5, where the woman pictures the Jewish people, the child pictures Jesus Christ, and the dragon pictures Satan:

¹And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: ²And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. ³And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. ⁴And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. ⁵And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

After the birth of Christ, however, the Devil began trying to prevent Jesus from fulfilling His divinely prophesied role as the Saviour. Certainly, the previously mentioned effort by King Herod to kill all the male babies in and around Bethlehem (Matthew 5:16) was one of those efforts. Other efforts including enticing the Jews to kill Jesus earlier in His ministry (Luke 4:28-30; John 5:16,18; 8:59; 10:31).

Since Satan failed to prevent Jesus from going to the cross, and failed to prevent His resurrection, the Devil has redoubled his efforts to prevent Jesus from fulfilling the remainder of His mission. To do so he has and continues to incite hatred and persecution of the Jewish people in order to prevent Jesus from being able to return to the earth to fulfill God's promises to save all Israel (Romans 11:26-27), reestablish the throne of David and fulfill the kingdom promises made to King David and the Jewish people (Isaiah 9:6-7; Luke 1:31-33), and to establish the millennial kingdom of Jesus Christ on earth (Psalm 72; Revelation 20:4).

The Devil's efforts to impede Jesus explains the spread of antisemitism, anti-Jewish laws, expulsion of Jews, and anti-Jewish pogroms down through the Middle Ages into the modern era. Consequently, the same spirit that motivated Herod to slaughter the Jewish babies in and around Bethlehem is the same spirit that motivated Hitler to exterminate the Jews in the Holocaust. The same spirit that motivated the Nazis to slaughter the Jews at Kristallnacht, November 9-10, 1938, is the same spirit that motivated Hamas and the residents of Gaza to rape, torture, slaughter, dismember, and burn alive Jews on the morning of October 7, 2023. It is the same spirit behind the lies and false claims of the rabidly antisemitic screed, The Protocols of the Elders of Zion, and is the same spirit behind the wild antisemitic lies and false claims leveled against Israel by Hamas and their supporters since the October 7 attacks.

Of course, as Christians, we should recognize the satanic nature of this spirit and guard against being infected with it ourselves. It is none other than the Mystery of Iniquity spoken of by the Apostle Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:7. It represents the ongoing efforts of Satan and his allies to prevent Jesus Christ from fulfilling His promises to Israel and completing His prophesied mission in Daniel 9:27 "...to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy." To do this, Satan seeks to destroy both the Jewish people and the Jewish state, prevent the rebuilding of the Jewish Temple, and establish a rival global order or kingdom, led by the Antichrist, in order to prevent Jesus Christ from returning to this world and ruling and reigning over it from David's Throne in Jewish Jerusalem.

Thankfully, we know from God's Word how it ends. The devil will lose and Jesus will win. Until then, the same spirit that motivated King Herod, and all those who have sought to destroy the Jewish people and prevent Jesus from accomplishing His mission is still alive and well. It is up to us to keep our eyes fastened on Jesus in the midst of the storm and "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. (Psalm 122:6)"

The Twelve

What is that which is but one?
We have but one God alone
In Heaven above sits on His throne.

What are they which are but two?
Two Testaments, as we are told;
The one is New and the other Old.

What are they which are but three?
Three Persons in the Trinity,—
The Father, Son, and Ghost Holy.

What are they which are but four?
Four Gospels written true,—
John, Luke, Mark, and Matthew.

What are they which are but five?
Five senses we have to tell;
God grant us grace to use them well.

What are they which are but six?
Six ages this world shall last;
Five of them are gone and past.

What are they which are but seven?
Seven days in the week have we,—
Six to work, and the seventh holy.

What are they which are but eight?
Eight beatitudes are given:
Use them well and go to Heaven.

What are they which are but nine?
Nine degrees of Angels high
Which praise God continually.

What are they which are but ten?
Ten Statutes God to Moses gave,
Which kept or broke do spoil or save.
